ABOUT

Tarot in Space is a story. It speaks of the challenges and triumphs of human life through a whimsical lens. This deck follows a cast of human and alien characters, their connections and personal stories add depth to the cards. Like a real person, the characters in the cards are not all one thing nor another. May begins her journey into the Universe as The Fool and experiences growth and setbacks throughout the deck as one of two humans represented, the other being August, The Hermit. The rest of the characters are unearthly beings, the Pages are Ensigns being trained in interplanetary disciplines, the Knights, or Lieutenants, are super advanced androids, and the Queens and Kings rule entire star systems.

This deck can be read as the traditional Rider-Waite-Smith cards by substituting the suits of Cups, Coins, Wands, and Swords with Comets (Water), Planets (Earth), Rockets (Fire), and Lasers (Air); respectively. However, the deck takes on a whole new, richer meaning when you immerse yourself in the story. Spend a little time getting acquainted with this deck and its unique characters and you'll be rewarded with some truly unique readings!

HOW TO READ

Contrary to popular belief, there is only one horribly wrong way to read Tarot and that is to leave it on your shelf collecting dust. The beauty of the Tarot is that it works with you, not against you, to bring you messages from your guides, deities, or your own subconscious. No matter what method you use, the Tarot will conspire to bring you the message you need to read.

If that was a bit too mystical for you and you'd like a step-by-step breakdown of exactly how it's done, read on Mr. Spock!

Cleanse + Intent

There are so many ways to cleanse! Moonlight, smoke, sweeping, knocking, shuffling, wrapping in organic cloth, crystals... the list is endless. So here I'll talk about a tool-free method that can be done anytime and anywhere. You won't have to do this every time you use your deck, just if they feel a little "off" (I know, I know, I'm being mystical again).

First, cleanse your hands by dusting them off, as if you have chalk on them. Do this until they feel a little warm and tingly. This is a wonderful way to reset yourself anywhere and anytime without drawing (much) attention to yourself.

Now you can cleanse the deck! A very popular and simple method of cleansing is knocking. Hold your deck in your non-dominant hand, artwork down, and knock on the deck three times with your dominant hand. Imagine every knock adding pure, bright light into the cards and shaking anything nasty out.

Next, you can set your intention for the deck. Hold it to your heart and give it a little pep talk, introduce yourself if this is your first time meeting and tell the deck what your intentions are for it. This insures that your deck won't get suspicious of you and slither away.

Shuffle

Yes, they are bigger than playing cards! If you read for other people, you've heard this before. Just pretend like this is the first time you've heard it and humor them. "Wow! I never noticed! You're a sharp one." The size of the Tarot is perfect for stunning visuals, not so great for shuffling. So here are some shuffling tips in the event that you're Tiny Hands McGee.

- The Short Way. Like, not the long way. You know? Your thumbs will be on the longer side of the deck when you go to fan them down. That makes sense, right? Moving on.
- The Cut. It's the easiest thing to have your clients do and it's easy for you, too!
- The Massacre. Just spread them out, everywhere, all over the table. Remember the game Pick Up Sticks? Who knew you were gaining an important life skill!

Stop once the cards feel ready to go, maybe a little warmer from the friction, maybe your just tired of them dropping all over the place.

If a single card falls out or flips over while shuffling it's a Super Magic Mega Ultra Power Card (aka a "Jumper") and you should set it aside to read.

03

Draw

I'm sure I don't have to tell you by now, but there's no wrong way to choose your cards either! Here's what I typically do:

1. Shuffle the cards to taste and think on your question or intent for the pull.
2. Spread the cards across the table in an arc (using a table cloth or a tarot cloth helps with getting a nice arc).
3. Run your non-dominant hand over the cards until you feel warmth or tingles, hone in on your card like a retiree finding antique coins with a metal detector on the beach.
4. Pull this card and either place it in your spread or read as is!

THE MAJOR ARCANA

THE FOOL

May is at the beginning of her journey. She still wears her roller skates which tie her back to her life on Earth. She carries with her a backpack, showing that she is minimally prepared. There is a white rose of innocence floating out of her hand.

Upright, you are at the beginning of an important phase of your life. The road ahead may be unclear and at this stage it can be difficult to create a plan for your future. Relax, have a little faith in the process, and look towards the rest of your life with excitement and wonder.

Inverted, an opportunity is on the horizon, but you may be fearful of it. Take care to consider your options and allow your mind open to the idea of change and risk. Trust the Universe to take you where you need to go.

THE MAGICIAN

Aoide is a traveling Titian Bard. She manifests her intention using the four elements, represented by rockets (fire), lasers (air), comets (water), and planets (earth).

Upright, you have the tools you require for manifestation. You are being shown that you have limitless potential and the ability to create something new out of what you've been gifted by the Universe. Work on moving your desires from the spiritual to the physical realm.

Inverted, something is trying to manifest through you but there is a blockage- either you're not prepared for the change or the change is not in line with your Highest Self. Allow yourself to take a break and re-evaluate. Look for signs from your guides and consider if this is the path meant for you. Prepare a plan of action for moving forward.

THE HIGH PRIESTESS

The Tuhtian Oracle caresses a crystal ball filled with all the knowledge in the Universe. Her eyes are blank, she sees with her intuition. She is a trusted advisor and the keeper of Divine Feminine Power.

Upright, trust yourself and your intuition. When The High Priestess appears she's calling you deeper, asking you to see your situation from a more holistic perspective. Focus on finding the answers from inside yourself. Meditation and other spiritual practices will be beneficial.

Inverted, return to your wise, feminine self. You may be out of touch with your intuition and fearful of the unknown. Relax into the mysteries of the cosmos and you'll find the answers revealed to you.

THE EMPRESS

The Rhean Queen Rapite nurtures young larvae. She may have a crown of expensive crystals, but she is not focused on physical possessions.

Upright, this card connects you with feminine, nurturing energy. It may be time to nurture a new project or goal or you may be starting a family. Now is a wonderful time for self care and looking for ways to bring beauty into your life as your feminine power is strong.

Inverted, you are out of touch with your femininity and creation energies. Something is wanting to manifest through you but you are blocking it in some way. Allow time and space for this to come through by journaling, freely creating art, or sitting and musing on ideas.

THE EMPEROR

The Rhean King Hyctar is a father-figure. He is strong and sturdy with a protective kindness. He offers a crystal ball with the ankh, a symbol of life.

Upright, this card brings positive masculine energy. Rather than creative energy, you may be focused on stabilizing energy. When this card appears, appreciate the little things that make your life possible. The rules and structure of your world will be important.

Inverted, either you are abusing a position of power or allowing your power to be taken away from you. Assess your position and work on your relationship with power. You can use your strengths and wisdom with great success if you keep humility in mind.

THE HIEROPHANT

The Hierophant, or High Priest, holds the keys to both the conscious and the subconscious. He has three rows of beads on his scalp- representing the conscious, subconscious, and superconscious.

Upright, you may find great comfort in tradition and routine. The Hierophant represents organized religion and traditional teachings. Begin to understand the rituals of the past and how they can inspire you.

Inverted, break out of the mold a bit and explore your spirituality on your own terms. You may be stuck on a certain image of what religion is, try experimenting with faith and be more creative in your experience of the Universe.

THE LOVERS

IX and Yvonne are the passionate lovers of the Tarot. Upright, this is a passionate, intense relationship or passion for a project or interest. You may be so focused on this passion that you allow other important things to be ignored. Inverted, this relationship may be unstable at the moment, passions are high and not in a beneficial way. Either move that energy into a more loving state, or try to cool off the intensity and look at the relationship from a less emotional place.

THE CHARIOT

The Audacity is a garish Class 20 Racing Rocket that miraculously runs on coffee dregs instead of rocket fuel. Upright, it's time to take action, regardless of the obstacles in your way. You may literally find yourself undergoing a life change like moving or switching jobs or you may be taking a look at your goals and starting on a serious path to reach them. Your willpower will be tested, stay the course. Inverted, be careful you're not fixating on a path that's not meant for you. Know the difference between a character strengthening challenge and a warning sign to turn back.

STRENGTH

May encounters a strange star-headed space feline. She learns to understand and work with the creature, despite its ferocious nature. Upright, you'll be met by a challenge that is a blessing in disguise. Once you learn to work with rather than against this challenge, you'll understand exactly why it's in your life and how it can help you. Inverted, trust yourself and harness your inner strength. You may be out of alignment with your personal power and obstacles seem insurmountable. Use strengthening affirmations and power poses to encourage your inner strength to shine bright.

THE HERMIT

August is one of just a handful of humans who've been displaced from Earth. He lives on his own on Seven and hunts for valuable materials in junk for a living. He really misses apples.

Upright, part of your personal development requires some inside work. The lessons you need to learn right now are already within you and only introspection will bring them out. Spend time in meditation and journal.

Inverted, you've been isolating yourself and closing off from the world. While at times this is important, now you may need to look at reconnecting to the world around you.

THE WHEEL OF FORTUNE

The Audacity ricochets off the wheel, speeding away in another direction. The wheel itself invokes the Universe Itself. Alchemical symbols representing the four elements, along with Hebrew symbols representing the name of God spin around the wheel of fortune.

Upright, good luck is headed your way and you'll see an increase of positive events and action. Take advantage of this favorable time.

Inverted, be frugal and expect setbacks during this time. Plan for the worst and focus on accepting challenges gracefully. If you feel frustrated during this time, take a break and move back into a planning stage.

JUSTICE

General Listay holds aloft a set of laser scales with her holographic arm.

Upright, this is a balancing time. Good intentions and actions will be rewarded, and negative intentions or harmful actions will be rebuked.

Inverted, a sense of universal unfairness peppers this card when it's inverted. You may feel cheated, or that evil prevails and bad actions are being rewarded. This can be a difficult and confusing time, just wait it out. In the end, all things must come to a cosmic balance, the homeostasis of the Universe.

THE HANGED MAN

Xan's been tied to a fin of the Audacity, but he's not terribly worried about it. He knows that sometimes these things just happen and eventually May will notice and help him out. Upright, it's okay to plateau. Sometimes progress must be paused in order to see possible obstacles and change course to avoid them. When your hands are tied in a situation, relax and allow things to pass.

Inverted, you may be fighting a natural lull, trying to work through burn-out, or chipping away at a brick wall in front of you. Step back and try to look at your situation from a different angle.

DEATH

Death may be a spooky sight but She pulls back Her shroud to reveal that She isn't all gloom. Her corset is wrapped in flowers, symbolizing the cycle of death and rebirth.

Upright, transformation is afoot. Some piece of you, your work, or your surroundings is about to fall away to allow for new growth. Consider this a pruning of your garden. Now is a good time to do a Spring Cleaning, donate items you no longer use, and move on from things that no longer benefit you.

Inverted, you are carrying something with you that you need to release. Whether this is physical or emotional, it's time to let it go and move on. Trust in the cycles of life, allow the old to die in order to fertilize something even better.

TEMPERANCE

Temperance is an androgynous cyborg angel, part organic and part mechanical. They are both male and female, living in that dualism perfectly.

Upright, bring more balance into your life. You're being offered an opportunity to even yourself out, perhaps open to some new ideas and try out living in the grey areas of life. Now is a good time to work on accepting dualism, accepting that you cannot know what is right.

Inverted, your life may feel pretty out of balance right now. You're missing an important part of the alchemy that is a happy life. Take time to meditate on this and figure out what you can bring into your life or begin to remove from your life.

THE DEVIL

Yvonne has captured Xan and May. Dreadful ideas fill her head as she looks upon her prey but Xan and May have been through all this before and know they can handle it. There are glowing laser chains around their necks, but they aren't attached to anything, symbolizing their control over the situation.

Upright, you're focusing on the short term right now and allowing yourself to be controlled rather than controlling your own life. You have the power you need to get back on your path.

Inverted, this card represents overcoming addictions or base desires. You're on the right track to self improvement right now so stay strong and keep working through temptations.

THE TOWER

A massive tentacle crushes a tower, quickly bringing it to ruin.

Upright, sometimes no matter what we try to build the Universe has other plans. There is a time for everything to die, do not be afraid. It's the natural cycle. Once your tower has come crashing down you can re-build something stronger, better, and more aligned with your soul's purpose. Do not fear the inevitable crash. You will rise again.

Inverted, reach down to your foundation now, get back to your roots. You may have leapt too fast and too far. Touch base with your truest desires in life to rebuild stronger.

THE STAR

The Star pours a coffee pot full of stars into space, filling the void with beauty. She looks upwards, to the bright future ahead of her.

Upright, this is a very special time for you, things will start falling into place and your purpose will become more clear. You've cleared out the old and are filling your Universe with new, sparkling energy.

Inverted, you may feel overwhelmed by life and disconnected from the Universe and yourself. Spend a little time filling your own cup and communing with a higher power and focus on re-alignment with your Highest Self.

THE MOON

The dog pictured is Laika, the first dog sent into space from Russia. She was a street dog that was rescued and pampered in the few months before her final journey. They did not make a return trip. This card is in memory of the brave Space Dog. A dream-like scene of a dog and an alien wolf floating in space. Upright, this is one of the most mysterious cards of the Tarot and often means it's time to take a close look at your unconscious mind by meditating and writing down your dreams. Things may not be as they seem in the "real world".

Inverted, you are not meant to know right now, allow the Universe to do its job live in the uncertainty for awhile.

THE SUN

Aimz basks in sunlight, she's happy with herself and confident in who she is. Circumstances do not phase her.

Upright, this sunny card is the epitome of joy! Have fun with this, love yourself and love others, be bright and beautiful.

Inverted, don't let anything dull your spark. You are a light in the darkness. This card comes to you to bring you warmth in a difficult time or to allow you to relax in an easy time if you're feeling anxious.

JUDGEMENT

Xan and May face judgement at the hands of the omnipotent ghost of Hedy Lamarr. It's more likely than it sounds!

Upright, you're coming to a time of reckoning where you will receive your just rewards. Know why you do what you do and be confident in your ability to defend yourself.

Inverted, it is time to rise above your old ways, to re-think and evaluate how you've been living. Are you stubbornly sticking to a belief you no longer truly feel is right? Or are you holding a grudge against someone that's hurting you more than it hurts them? Rise now, allow yourself to go through judgement day and decide to let the past stay in the past and not affect your future.

THE WORLD

May dances through a crystal laurel wreath, confident in herself as she completes this stage of her growth.

Upright, you've made it! You've successfully traversed a phase of your life and are now at the end of this particular lesson. Enjoy this time and reflect on what you've learned.

Inverted, it's time to end this phase of your life, but it's nothing to grieve. You're ending this phase to make way for a new beginning.

THE SUIT OF COMETS

ACE OF COMETS

A comet, made of ice (thus the water element), shoots across the galaxy.

Upright, the Universe is conspiring to offer you more love in your life, open up to love from all around- friends, family, lovers, or yourself. Watch for opportunities to give and receive love.

Inverted, take some time to focus on your emotional growth. You may be missing a wonderful opportunity. The Universe is ready to send you love, but you must be receptive to it first.

TWO OF COMETS

Xan and May act as partners, supporting each other and enhancing each others best qualities.

Upright, this card represents a pairing that works for the benefit of both parties. A positive and well-suited relationship that transcends initial attraction and lust to focus on a more stable and beneficial partnership.

Inverted, you have a relationship that's not as close and comfortable as it could be. Something is keeping you or your partner from accessing the wealth of unconditional love and support you're destined for.

THREE OF COMETS

August, May, and Xan are enjoying mysteriously colored drinks together on the well-loved couch aboard the Audacity.

Upright, friendship and community are key in your life right now. Connect with the people who understand you best and enjoy the simple pleasures of friendship.

Inverted, you may need some time to yourself, or to seek out a group of people who are better suited to your current phase of spiritual and emotional growth. You will become like those whom you spend the most time around, so choose wisely.

FOUR OF COMETS

August sits on a hill on 1613 Centauri VII where he's been stranded. Other travelers also stranded on 1613 Centauri VII offer him help, money, food, even a haircut but he's too caught up in his own turmoil to notice that he's not alone.

Upright, the Universe is offering comfort and guidance right now, open yourself up to accessing this information.

Inverted, you've been isolating yourself and trying to deal with your problems on your own for too long. Allow yourself to be honest with others. Vulnerability and asking for what you need leads to deepened, healthy relationships.

FIVE OF COMETS

May curls up on a bean bag chair aboard the Audacity and contemplates all she's lost by leaving Earth for good. She stares at a novelty globe Xan got her.

Upright, something in your past has not been healed. You may be stuck on a regret or a loss and constant obsession over it is keeping you from moving into your future.

Inverted, it's time to move-on from a negative event in your past. The grieving period is over and you've learned all you can. You're actively moving into a better phase, keeping all the lessons from the negative event with none of the turmoil.

SIX OF COMETS

A mysterious gloved hand gives young May an alien flower. Spoiler alert: it's Xan. Timeline shenanigans.

Upright, elements from your childhood are converging now. You may be revisiting past phases of your life or getting in touch with old friends. This card can bring an innocence back into your life and relationships. Take time to enjoy simple pleasures.

Inverted, something from your childhood may be coming back to haunt you. Now is a good time to focus on working through issues from your past and clearing negative associations from your youth.

THE SUIT OF COMETS

SEVEN OF COMETS

Every morning you must choose a coffee mug. You have a mug for love, wealth, danger, loss, hope, fear, or joy. What will you choose today?

Upright, you are in control of your choices and you feel empowered to pick the right opportunity. Options will be spread before you and you must choose wisely.

Inverted, you feel overwhelmed by the paths that diverge before you and aren't confident in your decision making ability. Try free-writing through possible paths, writing a pros and cons list, or using a pendulum to help you work out where to go from here.

EIGHT OF COMETS

August begins a new journey, walking along a floating boardwalk. His feet are bare and dirty because he's moving from a place of lack and into something new.

Upright, you're ready to move on from something that wasn't all you hoped it would be. You may be embarking on a long journey to something new, be sure you know where you're headed and why.

Inverted, the option of walking away is on the table now, but it may not be in your best interest. Consider carefully whether or not your Highest Self truly wants to move onto something new.

NINE OF COMETS

May relaxes after a tough rocket race. She's won several races now and feels confident in her ability to succeed. Being a rocket racer is much more satisfying to her than her old job working at the Sonic.

Upright, take pleasure in all that you've achieved! Now is a time for gratitude and rest. You've worked hard, enjoy what you've created.

Inverted, where are you putting your personal worth? Your worth can't be measured by awards or material possessions- or even by money. Focus on cultivating happiness that isn't dependant on external forces.

TEN OF COMETS

May and Xan wave goodbye to a cluster of comets. Why? Well that's a terrific question. Let's dig into that a bit. Upright, this is a time of great emotional fulfillment and peace. Cherish your family and your broader community and take a moment to appreciate the wealth of love! This card can represent a gathering of family or friends. Inverted, you may be feeling disconnected from your loved ones right now. Look at where you can enhance or repair a relationship in your life and find opportunities for bonding.

ENSIGN OF COMETS

The Ensign of Comets is just starting out on her journey to Queendom. She's exploring the flow of life now, studying the unusual fish that lives in a bowl. Upright, a learning curve is ahead of you as the Universe reaches down to further open your horizons. Stay in a state of flow, drink lots of water, and open to lessons of love and creativity that may come from unusual sources. Now might be a good time to pick up a self improvement book. Inverted, allow yourself to grow emotionally during this time. Open up to those whom you trust and be honest. You may be closing yourself off from a wonderful opportunity by not being vulnerable.

LIEUTENANT OF COMETS

An amorous android dances through the stars. Upright, be on the lookout for a shift in your emotional intelligence. This card represents a positive, loving influence in your life and the ability to love and be loved. It can mean someone new is coming into your life to offer love lessons or someone you know might step into a new role in your life. Inverted, be careful to not allow your emotions to drive your decisions right now. It can be tempting to throw yourself into something new and exciting, but try to take a step back and allow yourself a little more time before you make that leap.

QUEEN OF COMETS

Queen Vorcia is a Tuhntian Queen. She reclines on her throne with a strange alien fish friend.

Upright, this card represents nurturing and emotional intelligence. You are in sync with the Divine Feminine and your nourishing nature. You may be nourishing yourself, others, or both at this time. You have maternal wisdom with you.

Inverted, focus on caring for yourself at this time, you may be running on empty emotionally. Take time out of your day to bathe, drink lots of water, and journal. If you can be near running water like a waterfall or rain, do so!

KING OF COMETS

The King of Comets sits confidently on their throne. They are balanced and have a high emotional intelligence.

Upright, this card portrays fatherly love and compassion, as well as mercy and forgiveness. It's a gentle reminder to be your best self. This card may represent someone with a masculine and nurturing energy.

Inverted, be careful not to bottle up your feelings and create more problems for yourself. Learn how to express your emotions in a healthy way.

THE SUIT OF LASERS

ACE OF LASERS

A laser gun discharges in space. Lasers or swords represent the air element as they cut through the air.

Upright, this card can be equally destructive and brilliant. You have the potential to be a force for good or evil at this time and great wisdom is called for in this situation. You've been given the upper hand and must use it with care.

Inverted, you lack focus and consistency in reaching your goals. Take time to plan and consider where you want to go. You must know where you want to aim before pulling the trigger.

TWO OF LASERS

Yvonne is trapped in a dualism. She's possess by the spirit of Chaos, but she herself desires peace.

Upright, you feel caught between two possibilities and are unsure which road to take. Sometimes, new information will come in time and will help you make a better choice, but be careful not to wait too long at the crossroads as situations may escalate.

Inverted, a difficult decision with no clear right answer. You feel stuck where you are because either path forward is unappealing. This is a good time to break out a pros and cons list and meditate on possible solutions. Ask for outside help, as well. You aren't seeing clearly at this time so unbiased outsider opinions could really help you move toward the best option.

THREE OF LASERS

Three laser gun streams cross and create an atomic heart.

Upright, this can mean that there is an obstacle between you and your heart's desire. This obstacle is typically a logical or mental block that keeps you from what you love. It can also represent heartbreak and the replacing of emotion with cold logic.

Inverted, you are stuck in a pattern of grief that keeps you from experiencing the joy of love or moving on past a hurt and finding love again. Break the pattern now as it only gets harder. This may require therapy or counseling, and it is recommended that you seek outside help at this time to heal.

FOUR OF LASERS

IX rests before a battle, her laser gun nearby. Above her is a watching eye, allowing her to sleep for now and regain energy without having to worry about being caught unawares. Upright, take a break. This card is asking you to relax for awhile—sometimes it literally means you need more sleep. There are opportunities and challenges in your near future so enjoy rest while you can.

Inverted, you are having great difficulty taking a break and may soon experience burnout if you aren't already. If this card is inverted there is a mental or physical reason you aren't getting enough sleep and it may be wise to consult a professional. Make meditation practice a vital part of your day.

FIVE OF LASERS

Yvonne is engaged in a space conflict. Even IX being injured in the background won't stop Yvonne from blazing forward with her lasers.

Upright, you may be so focused on your goals that people who are close to you or values that are important to you are being brushed aside. Be careful that you are not ruthless in pursuit of your goal. Your ambition may be harming others.

Inverted, you sense that you are sacrificing too much for your ambition and are willing to tweak how you're going about things. Often, though you might be willing, you see no other possibility and feel trapped on the path you have chosen. It is never too late to change your path. Even a few steps backward to go down a better path is better than continuing forward blindly.

SIX OF LASERS

Yvonne drags IX into her plot to bring Chaos to the universe. Conflict hangs over Yvonne's head, attracted to her blind pursuit of power. IX hesitates, looking back to their peaceful life together. She has been blinded in battle but her open third eye is watching Yvonne.

Upright, this signifies a journey into a new life that you are not entirely on-board with. Hesitation and fear prevail here as you make necessary adjustments. Though this transition is difficult, you must go through it with grace in order to come out the other side a better person. It is a positive transition.

Inverted, there is much difficulty moving on and into the next phase of life. You are being held back by something and are unable to welcome a change. Try to look at things from an outside perspective and look for the silver lining in your new adventure.

SEVEN OF LASERS

Xan nervously climbs into the Audacity.

Upright, you may be taking advantage of a bad situation, but that's not necessarily a bad thing. You may be taking the wisest action right now, even if you feel a little guilty. Once you're sure you're doing something that's for the greater good, continue with confidence.

Inverted, look deeply at your motivations, miscommunication might be pushing you into actions you could regret later. What is your motivation behind your current course? Are you coming from a place of fear or misunderstanding?

EIGHT OF LASERS

IX is bound by laser ropes and guns surround her on all sides.

She is sitting in meditation, closed off to the world and bound by her circumstances but living a rich inner life.

Upright, this card represents a feeling of being trapped by outside forces beyond your control. However, if you change your thinking and are able to experience freedom in a different way- in IX's case through meditation- you can free yourself. Now is a good time to try to look at situations from different angles.

Inverted, this card signifies an end to victim mentality. It shows that, while you may be influenced and challenged by outside factors, you are stronger than them and are able to see how they could be of use to you. Release past grudges at this time lest they continue to keep you down.

NINE OF LASERS

IX is distraught and depressed, spending her time in bed and not wishing to communicate with Yvonne. She disagrees with Yvonne's path but finds herself unable to confront her.

Upright, this card represents psychological blockage and mental anguish. You feel afraid and uncertain, though things in your physical world are not as bad as they may seem. This is a card of anxiety and grief.

Inverted, you feel totally overwhelmed and you are unable to see past the negative in a situation. This tends to make the situation, or at least how you're looking at the situation, even worse. You are essentially standing in the way of your own happiness by focusing on your fears about the future. Do your best at this time to release control and think positively about how things will unfold.

TEN OF LASERS

IX overcomes Yvonne who's possessed by the spirit of Chaos. They've both betrayed each other in some ways. Upright, there is triumph of logic over feelings in this card. You may need to do something that's difficult in order to improve your situation. You may also feel that someone has turned their back on you, that you've been unfairly tossed aside. Inverted, be absolutely certain you know the entire situation before you burn any bridges that cannot be rebuilt. Communication may be difficult at this time, so focus on being calm and clear.

ENSIGN OF LASERS

General Listay has a spark of inspiration in her eyes. After losing her arm in battle, she has decided to devote herself fully to Yvonne who has offered to create a new, robotic arm for her. Upright, this card represents someone at the beginning of a new project or phase of life. Things are looking bright for the future and this person is excited. They represent the essence of positive anticipation and direct that energy into the first burst of adrenaline in this new project or path. Inverted, this card represents someone who jumps from project to project blindly, never sticking with one thing for long enough to see it through. They are impulsive and perhaps even manic as they split their mental resources until they dwindle away. This calls for a heavy dose of reality and a lesson in commitment.

LIEUTENANT OF LASERS

An android rushes into battle, sure of their purpose and confident that they're bringing peace to the Universe. Their faceplate displays a dove. Upright, you have strong convictions and a willingness to fight for what you believe to be true. This can be extremely admirable as long as you keep an eye on the possibility of branding yourself as a martyr. Inverted, you may be rushing into a position without fully understanding the situation. Take some time to learn more about what's going on before leaping into action. Think over your convictions honestly and deeply and try to understand the other side.

QUEEN OF LASERS

IX is in touch with instinctive wisdom, opening her third eye. Upright, this card speaks to high intelligence and logistical capability. The feminine energy represented in this card is wise and clear-thinking, good at making smart decisions. Inverted, be sure to keep a balance of logical thinking and emotional intelligence. There is a danger of becoming too cold or stand offish at this time.

KING OF LASERS

Yvonne is masculine, curious about the world, and highly intelligent. Upright, this card represents someone with a very level head, with analytical and logistical intelligence. They may be wrapped up in their own thoughts often, frequently questioning everything. Inverted, the energy of this card can be extremely cold and unfeeling, possibly even stoic and emotionally out of touch. At this time, try to open to listening to others and understanding from a heart-centered place.

THE SUIT OF PLANETS

ACE OF PLANETS

This card depicts a planet, representative of Earth and the physical realm. It sparkles with a crystalline ring, evoking wealth and financial matters.

Upright, this card speaks of a new opportunity for advances in your career, financial life, or personal assets. This may even include physical health and wellness! Manifest abundance in your life now and see that you'll always have enough!

Inverted, often this card represents overspending and under-saving. It comes as a warning to guard your health and your assets carefully at this time.

TWO OF PLANETS

Aimz scrutinizes two seemingly identical planets, weighing and balancing them.

Upright, you're being asked to balance your life as you run from one responsibility to the next. You may be learning to budget your time, energy, or money right now. Even if it feels like things are getting out of hand, remember you are in control.

Inverted, your priorities might not be in alignment with your highest self right now. Take some to focus on re-balancing your life to something more stable and suitable for you. You might need to slow down or back out of some projects right now to re-evaluate.

THREE OF PLANETS

Cleaning the Audacity is a tall order! May, Xan, and August all pitch in clean the enormous rocket ship.

Upright, look for opportunities to collaborate! You're a part of something now that requires many more hands to be successful. Choose your partners wisely and work on communication. The Universe will give you the tools, you must have the energy and wisdom to use them now.

Inverted, group work is not your pleasure. You may be experiencing difficulties with co-workers or bosses, or perhaps you're trying to go it alone right now and need some positive support. Consider carefully who's on your team.

FOUR OF PLANETS

Aimz sits on a pedestal with planets at her feet and a planet balanced on her head.

Upright, things are looking good for your financially right now! You've worked hard and been wise with your resources. Be careful to not tip over into obsession.

Inverted, you've found some success in your financial life, but it may be overwhelming you now. Remember to keep your priorities in order.

FIVE OF PLANETS

May and Xan are stranded on the Tuhtian colony on Rhea I without the Audacity and with very few resources. Fortunately, they have each other.

Upright, this may be a difficult time financially or health-wise for you. Be prudent in your spending and wise in how you invest your energy and time. Keep moving forward.

Inverted, you've gone through some rough times and are at the end of it now. Things may be starting to look up.

SIX OF PLANETS

May begs the robotic Overseer of the rocket races for another chance racing.

Upright, this card represents generosity and the distribution of assets. You may be on the giving or receiving end of some financial uplift at this time. Think carefully about where you invest your energy and your money, and if you truly need help now is a good time to ask the Universe for abundance.

Inverted, not every cause is a worthy one. Be discerning with your investments and be considerate of where you spend your money. You may also be going through a time of lack. Don't be afraid to get help when you need it.

SEVEN OF PLANETS

Aimz is tasked with keeping watch over budding planets. It's boring work, but it must be done... apparently. Upright, things are growing. Slowly, but they are. You've done lots of good work and now your efforts just need a little time to fruit. Be patient and celebrate the little victories and minor improvements when you recognize them. Inverted, waiting is the hardest part. This may be a stressful time and you might be tempted to take the easy or quick route. Don't forget about your long term goals and dreams- they are worth the wait.

EIGHT OF PLANETS

An apprentice planetary artist paints a detail into her latest creation. Upright, you're nearing the end of your apprenticeship. You've worked so hard for so long. Just a little longer and you will level up! This stage can be grueling, but keep going. You're closer to completion than you think. Inverted, don't give up just yet. You've put too much of yourself into this- keep working towards your dreams.

NINE OF PLANETS

Prismuntion, a hedonistic demi-goddess lounges in her garden eating grapes (every civilized planet grows grapes, but only Earth can grow apples). An expensive alien bird perches beside her. Upright, time to enjoy everything you've worked for! Take a break and appreciate the bounty your hard work has brought you. Inverted, you may be blinded by your desire for luxury and comfort in life. After a certain point, money cannot buy happiness. Once your needs are met, happiness must come from you.

TEN OF PLANETS

May and August are finally back on Earth long enough to enjoy some apples. Many civilized planets grow grapes but Earth is, of course, the only planet that grows apples.

Upright, it's time to share the abundance with your friends and family! Even if you don't have much in the way of money, now is the time to gather everyone together and celebrate what you do have.

Inverted, it can be difficult to count your blessings when things appear bleak, but if you sit down and find the things you're grateful for, you can experience fulfillment.

ENSIGN OF PLANETS

Lady Zee (A Queen in training) reads a holobook to prepare herself for her future career.

Upright, you're preparing for great things. You may experience a learning curve in the financial area of your life or an improvement in your health and wellness.

Inverted, be sure you're not trying to overstep yourself or take risks you're not prepared for. Study up a bit more, become a student of the world, pick up books regarding finance and/or wellness.

LIEUTENANT OF PLANETS

An android with a dollar sign showing on their face plate holds up a planet.

Upright, strength and stability. This is your monetary or physical safety net. Sometimes this is a person in your life, but it could be an aspect of yourself. At this time you are arming yourself financially to take on the world.

Inverted, be aware of a false sense of security. Things may be going well, but don't forget to save for a rainy day.

QUEEN OF PLANETS

Queen Rapite is the mother of all, she shares her riches with those in her favor and takes from the undeserving. Upright, this card represents the working women of the world. Someone who creates bounty seemingly from nothing and still has time and energy to nurture those around her. Inverted, it's time for some self-care right now. In order to help others, you must help yourself first.

KING OF PLANETS

The ultimate in stability and strength. King Hyctar is a father figure who brings financial security. Upright, you will be provided for. Whether it's a financial or physical matter you will be safe. This card may represent a person in your life, or perhaps even yourself, who is concerned with providing for those they care about. Inverted, be wary of holding too tightly onto the trappings of this world. Material wealth is fleeting.

THE SUIT OF ROCKETS

ACE OF ROCKETS

The Audacity shoots into the sky, straight up and so fast that the posters are peeling off. This is the beginning of a journey of passion, creativity, and excitement. This is your wake up call! The posters falling away represent a shaking off of possessions or mentalities that weigh you down and hold you back.

Upright, this card is one of boundless energy heading in the direction of your goals and dreams. If you are starting or working on a project you'll see an increase in your motivation. If you don't have a project in mind, you may be more motivated in other areas of your life- typically involving creative problem solving.

Inverted, this card asks you to make sure you aren't clutching onto anything that could hold you back or weigh you down. It may also denote fear of change and thus inability to grow.

TWO OF ROCKETS

May has learned a lot, she's ready to reach for the stars and try something new: Rocket Racing.

Upright, this card is all about planning how to move forward and preparing to make your mark on the world. Focus on goal setting now- break your dreams up into smaller sets of goals so you have stepping stones to accomplish all you've ever dreamed of.

Inverted, you may be getting ahead of yourself by leaping forward before you've set your course. Take some time to think about your goals and make sure you know where you want to go before you start going.

THREE OF ROCKETS

Xan watches three rockets race from the porthole of the Audacity and considers the dangers and opportunities facing him if he joins the rocket races himself. One hand is outstretched, pressed against the window, in anticipation of the possible rewards. The other is clasped by his side, showing his determination.

Upright, you are prepared for the journey ahead but may need to take a moment to observe. Look at and celebrate your progress thus far in order to have the motivation to move forward. This card means you've accepted an opportunity or opened your mind to an idea and are now looking at pushing boundaries ahead of you.

Inverted, you're sensing a block between what you want and where you are. You may be stuck due to fear or outside influences holding you back from progress. At this time, reconsider your goals and work on creating your stepping stones to go from where you are to where you want to be.

FOUR OF ROCKETS

May and Xan dance together in the Audacity, comfortable and cozy in their makeshift home.

Upright, this card represents a moment to celebrate comfort, love, and family. Often this is a literal wedding or other joyous gathering.

Inverted, you may be feeling uncomfortable in your home environment. Find ways to resolve this and create a comfortable home for yourself. When inverted, this card prompts you to look at your relationships and find ways of mending them or letting them go if they are unhealthy. It's a great time to apologize and forgive, make amends, and work on improving relationships.

FIVE OF ROCKETS

The competition in the Rocket Races is fierce and not every rocket will make it out the other side in one piece. Chaos and disorder rule this impassioned endeavor.

Upright, this represents a healthy dose of conflict in your life. It may be difficult at the time, but upright this card almost always means the conflict was necessary and will turn out for the better. It may also represent a little competition that pushes you to be your absolute best.

Inverted, this card means you're avoiding conflict perhaps to your detriment or the detriment of others.

SIX OF ROCKETS

May has accomplished her dreams and won the title of Fastest Rocket Racer and some extra crystals to boot! She and Xan stand in the winner's circle, reveling in their accomplishment.

Upright, this is a card of success, your hard work is paying off in a big way and recognition by your peers is on its way!

Congratulations! Enjoy this moment and take pride in yourself and your work. Just make sure to keep your ego in check during this exciting time.

Inverted, you aren't being recognized for your hard work and it's difficult to keep going without being appreciated. You feel you deserve some praise and people are overlooking your accomplishments. It may also mean it's time to focus on finishing a project, getting to the point where you can share your work with the world and finally receive recognition.

SEVEN OF ROCKETS

May must now defend her winnings or lose them to those who are jealous of her success. She's lost a boot in the struggle. Upright, you have come very far and have had many successes but a time is coming when you will have to defend all you've worked for against others who may try to outdo you. This is a time for courage, you must stand your ground and prove to the world that you deserve your success. Inverted, you feel that you're being unfairly treated and that everyone is out to get you. You may suffer from mild paranoia that people trying to take your place or bring you down. At this time, try to reclaim a more positive and genial attitude. It's exhausting trying to be on top all of the time, so spend some time helping others reach your level instead of fearing that they will drag you down to theirs.

EIGHT OF ROCKETS

It's clear skies for the Rocket Races now, obstacles have been cleared and each rocket is staying in its lane allowing them all to move incredibly fast. Upright, this card represents rapid movement towards your goals and a hefty dose of motivation. It may also indicate literal travel or an important move. In either case, this is a time of doing rather than thinking, acting rather than planning, and taking that foot off the brakes! Inverted, it's time to hit the brakes. You have motivation and energy but you may be moving in the wrong direction or moving too fast to be careful. Obstacles may arise to keep you from going too far along the wrong path at this time or to help you step back and plan a little longer before continuing forward.

NINE OF ROCKETS

May suffers a setback when she's disqualified from a race. Upright, you are at the final challenge before the finish line right now, things may suddenly look worse or you may feel exhaustion creeping up, but keep moving forward. You're closer to your reward than you think. Inverted, now is not the time to quit, even though challenges may appear insurmountable. Keep pushing through, you're almost there!

TEN OF ROCKETS

The Audacity struggles to tow the giant crystal cluster behind it. Xan and May are putting the ship in danger of overheating. Upright, you have at last reached the end and are enjoying the spoils of a job well done. This card also offers a warning, however, to not become greedy. The more assets you have, the more responsibility you have to use them in a way that enriches the world.

Inverted, this may be a good time to cleanse yourself of unneeded baggage. Your passions and desires wish to be fulfilled but your attachments are holding you back. Release what you don't need for this phase of your life so that you can move forward with ease and lightness.

ENSIGN OF ROCKETS

Lady Mysy leans on a laser spear, looking outwards towards new possibilities.

Upright, this card represents someone at the edge of a universe of creative possibilities. They may just be starting to dip your toes into the swirling waters of a new endeavor.

Inverted, this card represents stopping before you start and setting yourself up for defeat. It may also reveal that someone in your life wishes to keep you from exploring new territory and may do so by being a negative influence. Don't listen to hurtful comments from yourself or others at this time. Step forward boldly and enjoy the beginning of your new path.

LIEUTENANT OF ROCKETS

A passionate android with a flame on their face screen.

Upright, this card represents someone who is active, currently striving towards their passion with every ounce of energy. They may represent you or an inspiring person coming into your life, depending on the location in the spread.

Inverted, the Lieutenant's passion turns into a lack of regard for others and may represent an incendiary person in your life. It may also be warning you against sloth and laziness.

QUEEN OF ROCKETS

May reclines on the Audacity, comfortable in herself and her personal power. She holds the sunflower of creation and happiness. She has created a life that she loves and is happy on her unique life path.

Upright, this card represents someone who is highly creative and confident of their role in life. They are strong-willed and bold, not afraid of a challenge. She is a great leader, intelligent, and pushes people out of their comfort zone.

Inverted, the Queen's energy becomes more manipulative and conniving. This could represent someone who is too pushy or overbearing. It could also mean you must empower yourself now, don't be a pushover and know what exactly you stand for.

KING OF ROCKETS

Xan is the King of Rockets, an equal to May's enthusiasm with a slightly more nonchalant exterior. He is the entrepreneur, always seeking big pay for little work.

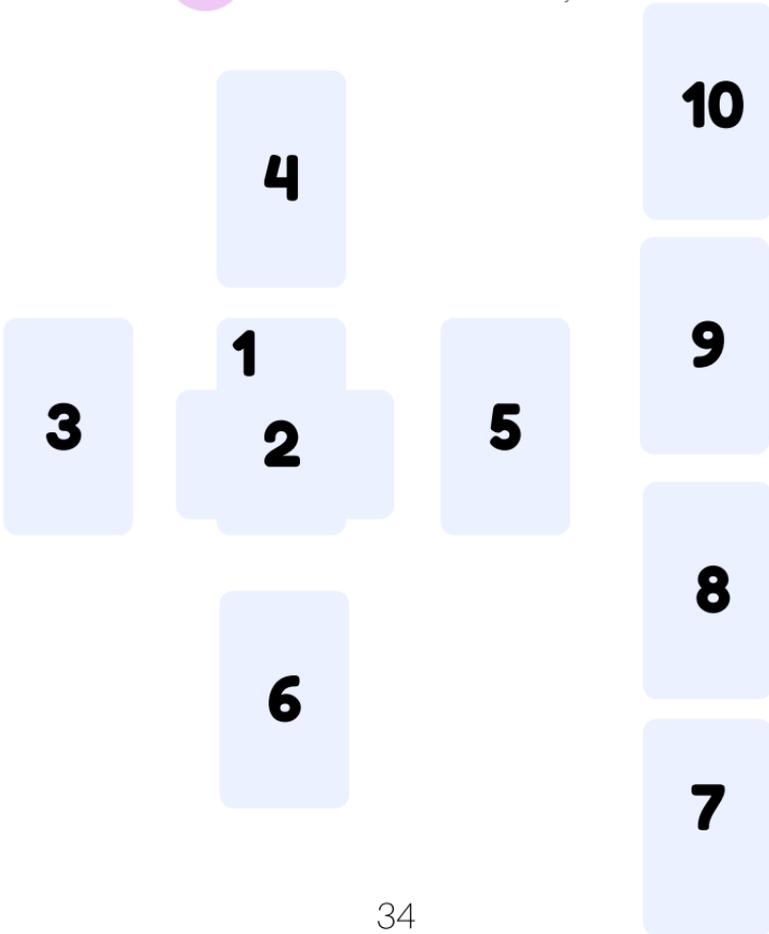

Upright, this card represents someone with a charismatic masculine energy. They seem to draw people and opportunities like a flame draws a moth. The King is in your life now to ask you to be brave and do what needs to be done with a sense of excitement and fun.

Inverted, we have a person with a masculine energy that just does not when to stop. They likely have a mind that their way is always the best way and they are more than willing to tell you this. They can be stubborn and illogical. It may also be time to renew your resolve in an issue.

DEDICATION

This deck is dedicated to the memory of Douglas Adams, without whom I would've never looked to the stars.

Thank you to my amazing, supportive husband Zack Loup (who also illustrated a deck called Divine Canine Tarot), my parents for helping me get my degree, and Dad for being an early backer on the Kickstarter. Thank you to Lina and Ivy at Wheel of Fortune Tarot Printing for the encouragement during the campaign and your outstanding printing services.

And thank you, of course, to Xan, May, and the Audacity.

If you've had fun with this deck, you'll enjoy "The Audacity," a face paced, fun romp through space available everywhere books are sold! LauraLoup.com to learn more
